The event is being planned to span over a two day period, with day one starting later to keep time in traffic to a minimum, and day 2 will end earlier, again, with the intention of minimizing time in traffic for everyone.

The Event will consist of a keynote speakers, up to the minute legislative information, and an afternoon Mixer event that will be held in our exhibition hall, and give sponsors/exhibitors ample amount of time to generate buzz in regards to products and services. Product demos featuring technology and hands on training will be encouraged - and the afternoon will conclude with on-site with drinks and appetizers. That evening, Our Vanguard Council is planning an event that will be fun and invite healthy competition!

Day two will include education, panel discussions, lunch with our exhibiting partners, exhibitor time, speakers, and breakout sessions. This day is being designed to meet the educational needs of Large & Small Group brokers and consultants, and those specializing in IFP, Covered California, Medicare and those in the HR/Employee Benefit Profession. We will end the event at 3:00, allowing exhibitors to breakdown exhibits at 2:00 pm.
